CONTESTS FOR GIRL SCOUTS

DOLLS MADE BY MEMBERS TO GO TO ORPHANS.

JUDGES ARE NAMED

Awards Will Be Announced Saturday; Week Will Close With Party At Kramer Home.

Five contests will be held for members of the Girl Scouts as part of their observance of National Girl Scout week, it was announced today by the captain of the local group, Mrs. John Arthur Noid. The week opened Sunday when ministers of Maryville churches gave talks on Girl Scouts.

The first contest will be held on doll dressing. Each scout has dressed a doll which is to be given to a children's hospital or orphans' home at Christmas. The same pattern was used for all of the dolls. Each is 19 inches long. Judges in this contest will be Mrs. H. L. Raines, Miss Bertha Beal and Mrs. Forrest Gillam. The dolls will be on display at the Montgomery Shoe Company Saturday. The prize for the best dressed doll is a toilet kit bearing the Girl Scout emblem.

The second is a darning contest and the judges will be Mrs. R. P. Hosmer, Mrs. Arch Frank and Mrs. William F. Phares. The prize is a girl scout knife. The samples of each scout's darning will be on display at the Bee Hive Shoe Store, Saturday.

The third is a cake making contest and those who will judge them are Mrs. W. C. Pierce, Mrs. Charles T. Bell and Mrs. Arthur Brewer. The prize is a mess kit. The cakes will be displayed at Lewis' and will be on sale at noon Saturday.

The fourth is the menu contest. Each scout prepared dinner for her mother, Tuesday evening and the menu used will be judges by Miss Mabel Cook and Miss Elizabeth Leet. A canteen is the prize. The winning menu will be printed in the Democrat-Forum and Tribune Saturday.

The fifth, the essay contest, will be judged by Miss Laura Hawkins. The subject will be "Why I Am a Girl Scout." The winner will be presented with a sterling silver scout ring. The winning essay also will appear in the Democrat-Forum and Tribune, Saturday.

The names of the contestants will not be placed on the articles presented for the contests. They will go by numbers.

A party will be given by the girl Scouts at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Kramer, North Main street, Saturday night. The committee in charge of the party is composed of the following scouts: Wilhelmina Hansen, Thelma Reimer and Margaret Leuck.

Donald Goforth Now With Big Orchestra

Connected With Elder And Burks New Orleans Harmony Kings. Well-Known Musical Organization.

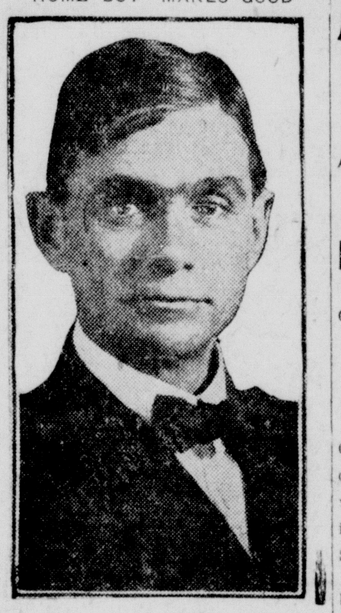
W. E. Goforth returned this morning from Burlington, Ia., where he went Monday night to spend yesterday with his son, Donald, who is playing this week in Burlington with the Elders and Burks New Orleans Harmony Kings orchestra. He joined this organization last Saturday at Davenport, Ia.

Donald has been with the Wardens Blackhawk Hotel orchestra at Davenport since last summer. He played the saxophone and clarinet. He will now be connected with the Elder and Burks organization. This orchestra has been in tact for several years and has filled engagements in the larger cities of the Middle West, East and South.

The orchestra leaves Burlington Saturday for Peoria, Ill. From there they will go to Terre Haute, Ind., for a two-months engagement. They will then go to Memphis, Tenn., for the rest of the winter, playing in the noted Peabody Hotel, a famous winter resort of the South.

Donald's many friends will be glad to know that he is making good in the musical world. He is a graduate of the Maryville High School where he was well known among members of the faculty and student body. He was assistant director of the high school orchestra last year under the direction of H. O. Hickernell. He also played in the Christian Church orchestra and filled a number of engagements at community meetings throughout Nodaway County.

"HOME BOY" MAKES GOOD



Henry L. Jost of Kansas City, who will speak at a Democratic rally in the Circuit courtroom here Saturday night, came to Nodaway County as an orphan a number of years ago.

URGES DEFEAT OF WET MOVE

MRS. BURGER SAYS PROHIBITION UP TO VOTERS.

SCORES SENATOR REED

W. C. T. U. President Declares He Is "Astute Politician" Seeking Democratic Presidential Nomination.

Kansas City, Oct. 27.—Asserting Missouri voters would have to register their sentiments on prohibition by voting on Proposition No. 4—a proposal to repeal the state enforcement law—Mrs. Nellie Burger, state president of the W. C. T. U., urged defeat of the proposal at the coming election in her annual address before the organization's convention here today.

Mrs. Burger said the prohibition sentiment would have to be shown by the vote on the proposal as "the dry voters of Missouri have no Senatorial choice, for both are opposed to the Eighteenth Amendment in principle."

"Senator James A. Reed," Mrs. Burger declared, "has no change of heart on the wet and dry question."

"He is an astute politician—he desires to be the Democratic nominee in 1928", Mrs. Burger said. "He is making a strong appeal to the more conservative wets of the Middle West."

Mrs. Burger denounced the Quebec system of liquor control and defended the younger generation, which, she said, was far better off under prohibition than in the days of the open saloon.

The speaker attacked the cigarette habit that has become prevalent among the young women of the country.

Voting Places to Be Same as at Primary

Polls to Be Open at 6 p. m. and Close at 7 p. m. at General Election Here Next Tuesday.

The polling places for Maryville and Polk township for the election to be held next Tuesday will be the same places as where the primary election was held last August, according to C. F. Childress, constable. The polls will open at 6 a. m. and will close at 7 p. m.

The polling places here will be located as follows:

First ward (Precinct D)—Mutz garage, across street south from post office.

Second ward (Precinct C)—Armory, North Buchanan street.

Third ward (Precinct B)—Lanning's Tire & Top Shop, corner First and Main.

Fourth ward (Precinct A)—James Smith's plumbing shop, 204 East Third street.

Game Postponed.

The football game scheduled to be played between Conception College and Clarinda Junior College at Clarinda yesterday, was postponed. The game will be played Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Clutter of Parnell were called to Kansas City, today because of the illness of their daughter, Miss Clara Clutter.

ARE PROUD OF HENRY L. JOST

ALDERMAN AND COOK GAVE HIM BAR EXAM.

HERE SATURDAY NIGHT

Came To Nodaway County As Orphan And Studied Law At Hopkins—Former K. C. Mayor.

Judge Ira K. Alderman and L. C. Cook are eagerly awaiting the arrival of Henry L. Jost of Kansas City who will speak at a Democratic mass meeting at the Circuit court room here Saturday night.

The coming of Mr. Jost will bring back fond memories to these two Maryville attorneys. Twenty-eight years ago, they were members of a committee which gave Mr. Jost his examination for admission to the bar. The other member of the committee was Alvin Bingaman.

On June 22, 1898, a young man came to Maryville from Hopkins and told the late Judge Cyrus A. Anthony that he wanted to be a "full-fledged" lawyer. This young man had been sent to Nodaway County from a New York orphanage and was taken into the home of Judge Phillip Dale at Hopkins.

Henry Jost, as he was affectionately called at Hopkins, "hired out" to farmers in that vicinity and did other work common to the young men of that day. Later, he studied law under the tutelage of Simeon E. Brown, a Hopkins attorney who is still living there. Then Henry Jost was appointed justice of the peace at Hopkins.

Mr. Jost had evidently mastered thoroughly the principles of law for at his examination at the Maryville courthouse, he passed "one of the most successful and satisfactory examinations that I have any personal knowledge of," Judge Alderman said.

It was Judge Alderman's privilege to write the committee's report to the court, and this report is believed to be on file at the Circuit Clerk's office.

"After procuring Mr. Jost's license, I asked him for an interview in one of the jury rooms," Judge Alderman said. "I said to him, 'Henry, how did you do it and what are your plans?"

The young attorney had considered entereing law school at Ann Arbor, Mich., but Judge Alderman suggested that he first decide on location either in Kansas City, St. Louis, Omaha or Lincoln, Neb. Mr. Jost was somewhat in favor of going to the Nebraska capital but finally decided to locate in Kansas City, where he would be able to attend a law school at night.

Judge Alderman then wrote to a few of his lawyer friends at Kansas City and asked them to aid Henry Jost whenever possile and he predicted the young attorney's rise to prominence.

"I am proud to know that my predictions have been abundantly fulfilled," Judge Alderman said. "He whom I call Henry, feeling that he enjoys the same familiarity with me, won honors in the Kansas City Law School and in a debate with representatives of the Columbia Law School. He has since served two years as mayor of Kansas City and one term in Congress. I rejoice in his success as much as if he were a member of my own family."

Judge Alderman believes that the only reflection on the honor of Henry Jost is the fact that he is a Democrat.

"I feel assured that he has been a needed blessing to that troublesome old political party and surely that party needs such aid," Maryville's veteran attorney said.

Father Felix Gives Retreat in Omaha

Father Athanasius and Father Joseph Fill Place Here.—40-Hour Devotions at St. Mary's Begin Saturday.

The Rev. Father Richard Felix, pastor of St. Mary's Church, is conducting retreat for Catholic sisters in Omaha, and during his absence his place here has been taken by Father Athanasius and Father Joseph, members of the Benedictine family of Conception Abbey. Father Athanasius came first, but he was assigned to Pilot Grove, Mo., and he was succeeded by Father Joseph.

Father Richard is expected to return Friday afternoon or Friday night. Father Norbert, another priest from the Abbey, also will come Friday night and at 9 o'clock Saturday morning will begin forty-hour devotions at St. Mary's.

Strength of Red Cross Depends on Its Preparedness

"The main thing the Red Cross must do is kept its organization in order that it may be ready when disasters occur," declared W. N. Deatherage, local attorney, today. "Just as in war time the nation unprepared must spend time getting organized and perfected before it can carry on, so must the Red Cross keep its organization if when disasters occur relief is to be given immediately.

"The junior Red Cross is an important thing that the Red Cross has undertaken in peace-time. This work gives the child the right incentive and the best outlook on life.

"The vast amount of work that the Red Cross is doing in disaster relief is outstanding."

'MAIL ROBBER' COMES HOME

"NO MORE BLIND BAGGAGE," SAYS KERMIT CARY.

CAUGHT BY MARINES

Maryville Youth, "Bumming" Ride From Harvest Fields, Is Arrested Then Released.

"Never again," says Kermit Cary, 18-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Cary, 702 East Fifth street, who returned to his home here last night from Council Bluffs, Ia., after having been arrested there Monday night as a possible member of a gang of mail train robbers.

Young Cary, who was graduated from the Maryville High School last May, had been working in the harvest fields in South Dakota for several weeks. He boarded the "blind baggage" of a train at Sioux City, Ia., with the intention of "beating" his way to Maryville, and he was taken by United States marines as the train pulled into the Council Bluffs yards Monday night.

The Marines were a contingent of those assigned by the Postmaster-General to guard the mails in an attempt to check the recent wave of robberies. The car which Cary was riding contained registered mail, and his arrest was the first made by the Marines.

The youth denied that he had any intention of interfering with the mails and the authorities at Council Bluffs were convinced and released him yesterday.

Young Cary says he will never forget the experience. He says there were others riding the blind baggage on the same train but that they got away.

Survey at Burlington Junction Is Promised

Highway No. 18 Will Be Improved Next Spring, Officials Say.—Will Help Keep Present Road Good.

A survey of state highway No. 18 west of Burlington Junction, with construction work to begin early next spring, was promised to a delegation of Burlington Junction citizens who visited the offices of the highway commission in St. Joseph Monday.

The delegation, numbering twenty or more, was received courteously and returned with the feeling that tangible results would be obtained.

The road west of Burlington Junction has been nearly impassible several times thi sfall because of the flooding of Mill creek, N. R. Sack, division highway engineer, assured the delegation that an immediate survey would be made, perhaps within two weeks, and a permanent route selected. This permanent road, he said, could not be graded so late in the season, but he promised aid in keeping the old road open this winter and until the permanent improvement can be made in the spring.

NEED HONESTY IN U. S. RULE

GOVERNMENT MUST KEEP CLEAN ALABAMAN SAYS.

FARMERS NEED AID

Decries "Coolidge Prosperity" As Existing Only In "Tariff-Protected New England States."

A plea for "honesty in government" and a "fair deal for the farmers of America" was made by Congressman William B. Oliver of Alabama in his address at a Democratic meeting in the Circuit court room last night.

Congressman Oliver believes that the American people have a right to "honesty in the administration of public affairs" and that "no section of the United States should profit at the expense of another."

Charles F. McCaffrey, Democratic county chairman, introduced the speaker, who has been a member of Congress since 1914 and has served on a number of important committees in the House.

The Alabaman paid a tribute to the work of Harry B. Hawes, Democratic candidate for United States Senator from Missouri, while a member of the House and said that the citizens of Missouri "will be well represented in the United States Senate if they will elect Mr. Hawes."

Discussing "Coolidge prosperity," the speaker said that it was effective only in the New England industrial states that were aided by the "highest protective tariff in the history of our country."

Farmers Not Prosperous.

"But we of the South and West have seen 2,500 bank failures during the last five years and a total of 106,000 failures of commercial institutions. Most of these have been in the Middle West and the South, and yet they tell us of 'Coolidge and prosperity'. How can they see the plight of the farmers of our country and then say we are enjoying great prosperity?"

Congressman Oliver then quoted figures taken from statements issued by the federal departments of agriculture and commerce in which it was said that the "value of farm lands in the United States has decreased seventeen billion dollars since 1921", and that "the value of farm products since 1921 has decreased about ten billion dollars."

Industries Benefit.

"During this same period," he continued, "the total value of the interests of manufacturers in this country has increased eighty-five billion dollars, as shown by recent statements of the department of commerce."

The speaker said that the number of governmental civil service employes has increased 12,000 within the last three year, and that the non-partisan budget committee in the House had reduced the amount asked by Presidents Harding and Coolidge 351 million dollars.

"So you can see that Mr. Coolidge has not been as economical as Congress. If there has been economy in the administration of our government during the last six years it is a result of the action of Congress and not Mr. Coolidge.

War Boards Abolished.

"Much of the reduced cost of our national government is due to the automatic abolition of war boards and bureaus, not needed now, and to the reduction of our army and navy. This has resulted in a reduction of two billion dollars a year in the cost of our government."

The Alabama Congressman then discussed the three tax reduction bills passed by Congress since 1921 and declared that the Democrats of the House and Senate were as much responsible for their passage as the Republicans.

"Democrats Cut Taxes."

"The truth is none of these bills could have been passed until after they had een amended by the Democrats so that the average American citizens would receive some benefits as well as the rich man," Mr. Oliver said.

Regarding the Fordney-McCumber tariff law now in effect, the Congressman said that it was costing the farmers of the South and Middle West millions of dollars a year because of increased prices on "everything the farmer buys."

"The farmer buys in a market highly protected but he sells his products in the world market at world prices," Mr. Oliver said.

Regarding the Pennsylvania and Illinois Senatorial primaries, the Congressman called attention that Senator George H. Williams of Missouri voted against the resolution for an investigation of campaign expenditures in these states.

Mrs. Bertha Crumpacker of Unionville, who also was to have given an address at the courtroom last night, was unable to be present at the meeting.

Back From Ten-Day Trip; Only Mud Here

Dwight Swinford and his brother, W. A. Swinford, of Arkoe, returned last night from a ten-day motor trip in South Missouri. They report fine roads and weather. The first mudhole they encountered was north of St. Joseph, and the worst mudhole was in Nodaway County on the Barnard road.

REED IS BUSY ON TWO JOBS

DIRECTS FUND INQUIRY AND WORKS FOR HAWES.

HOLDS CONFERENCES

May Play "Trump" Card When Indiana Klan Investigation Is Resumed at St. Louis Tomorrow.

St. Louis, Oct. 27.—The vigor of a 64 year-old United States Senator, whose activities have been before the public for years, is being used in a two-fold political drama here.

The man is Senator James A. Reed, Democrat of Missouri.

On one side, this man is Senator James A. Reed, chairman of the Senate investigating committee, who is probing into the political situation in Indiana; on the other, he is "Jim" Reed, home from Washington to campaign for his party in Missouri.

When Reed announced Monday that he was going to have another session of the Indiana political hearing at the federal building here tomorrow, those interested in the Indiana situation wondered why St. Louis was selected as the scene of the inquiry. But the politicians of Missouri knew why.

It was because "Jim" Reed wanted to carry on his vigorous investigation of the Indiana situation and at the same time help out Representative Harry B. Hawes, Democratic candidate for United States from Missouri.

His program is a busy one.

Early today he had conferences scheduled with a number of persons interested in the Indiana primary situation—a situation which has developed around Klan activities.

Later, his day was turned over to conferences with Missouri political leaders and tonight he will speak in behalf of Hawes.

He spoke last night for Hawes, dashing from one conference with friends from Indiana and returning, after the speech, to discuss the Indiana probe with his secretary.

After tonight's speech, he plans to rest in preparation for vigorous cross examination of witnesses in the federal building tomorrow.

Reed has subpoenaed some ten or twelve witnesses to appear tomorrow before his one-man investigating committee. But he has not divulged their names nor has he disclosed what he expects to learn from them.

Despite his vigorous program and his 64 years, Reed continues to be the dynamic Senator that Missourians have known him through his years of public service. Last night his voice boomed through the Colliseum as he delivered his political oration.

After his speech, he was questioned concerning his fitness.

"I'm not tired; I'm doing my duty and enjoying it," he replied.

St. Louis, Oct. 27.—America's best-known investigator, Senator James A. Reed of Missouri, today was flooded with requests from all sections of the country that he probe everything from municipal courts to rum running.

One woman asked the Senator to look into the city administration of Philadelphia while a St. Louis man was of the opinion that Reed should investigate the medical profession in Missouri. A resident of Detroit wants Reed to "run out the bootleggers there."

Reed turned down all requests with thanks, even some official ones, the first in Connecticut where another campaign expenditures investigation was asked and the second from Oklahome where an investigation of the Klan activities in the recent primary was wanted.

WOMAN GIVES QUEEN ORDERS

NURSE IS ONLY ONE WHOM MARIE MUST OBEY.

IN MONTREAL TODAY

Prince Nicolas Rides In Locomotive Cab And Piles Engineer With Questions.

Aboard Queen Marie's special train in Canada, Oct. 27.—A prim but affable woman of meek bearing and professional direction is the only person in North America who can dictate to Queen Marie of Rumania.

She is Adeline Young, a nurse from John Hopkins, who has undertaken the responsibility of safeguarding Her Majesty's health. It is perhaps the first time that a woman has held, officially or unofficially, the position of court physician. Members of the royal party, schooled in the behalf of masculine superiority, have been somewhat upset by Miss Young's importance.

Every move of the queen is subject to Miss Young's approval. On several occasions her power has been used to keep Her Majesty indoors or within sheltered inclosures.

Queen Marie today will visit Montreal, her train arriving here for a sixteen-hour stopover. The train crossed the Canadian border yesterday morning. Officials of the New York Central turned the train over to the Canadian national railway officials. New York state troopers were relieved at their posts by troops of the Royal Mounted Canadian Police, and American flags were replaced by the Union Jack.

The train arrived at Toronto with Prince Nicolas in the cab, dressed in immaculate blue serge, not the overalls of the grimy engineer. He had boarded the locomotive several miles below the city to satisfy his curiosity as to how American engines are operated and before he had stepped down, he had asked the engineer almost every conceivable question concerning railroading.

The party attended a meeting of the Women's Canadian Club in the afternoon and were guests at a dinner given at the government house by Lieut.-Gov. and Mrs. Henry Cockshutt.

Miss Young kept close guard of the queen's health. Ever Her Majesty's clothes were under the supervision of the nurse.

Miss Young was appointed by Daniel Willard, president of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, under whose auspices the special train was arranged, and who is also chairman of the board of directors of John Hopkins University. She was selected by the faculty of the institution as being "the most efficient nurse in the institution."

St. Louis Merger Is Decisively Defeated

Proposal Fails By Large Vote In County But Passes 7 To 1 In Balloting Yesterday.

St. Louis, Oct. 27.—Merger of St. Louis with St. Louis County was overwhelmingly defeated by voters yesterday in the county, although the project was favored 7 to 1 in the city.

The vote today stood 21,049 in the county against the proposal and 10,772 for it. In St. Louis the vote was 54,558 in favor and 8,067 opposed. Although a total favorable majority of 36,214 votes were balloted, favorable majorities in both city and county were required for the adoption of the proposal.

Poplar Bluff Shaken by Earth Tremors

Windows in Several Downtown Buildings Are Shattered—Shocks of Short Duration—Little Damage.

Poplar Bluff, Mo. Oct. 27.—Earth shocks of slight intensity shook Poplar Bluff and outlying regions today, shattering windows in several downtown buildings.

The shocks were of short duration and no heavy damage was reported.

No undue alarm was caused here as this district on the edge of the Ozark hills and at the delta of two rivers has been subject to earth tremors for many years.

THE ONLY DAILY PAPER IN NODAWAY COUNTY

The present campaign is drawing to a close. It is doubtful if there was ever so many imported speakers turned loose on Missourians as there have been in this campaign. Senators, Congressmen and cabinet officers, to say nothing of lesser lights are with us in numbers. It is, perhaps, very well. It tends to lift up the average of the campaign speeches. The work of the native talent has not been of a high order in either party. Personalities and cheap demagogery have almost smothered party principles. The visiting gentlemen are not acquainted with local feelings and generally make their appeals on a higher plane for party success.

Don't grudge the tax you pay when you buy gasoline—as you do everywhere in the United States except New York, New Jersey, Massachusetts and Illinois. Our two or three or four cents a gallon swells to a mighty and beneficient total, along with the other fellow's tax. The gasoline taxes in the entire country amounted to just about $85,000,000 for the first six months of this year. The total for the year will be near $200,000,000. Most of that money is poured directly into good roads. No wonder the motorist finds smoother going and readier access everywhere in the land. A few more years of this, with good engineering and honest spending, and America will have a matchless system of highways.

Those who advise voting against all the constitutional amendments as the easiest way are not doing the public nor the interests of the State justice. Proposition number one relating to workmen's compensation should be passed by a large majority. Justice to both business and labor demand it. Missouri is the only industrial state that does not have such a law. Proposition number two relates to giving the cities the right to pension their police if they so desire. This is optional and many regard it a good thing to do, in which case the vote should me "yes." Proposition number three should be defeated. It is simply a decoy put out to defeat proposition number one. The vote on number three should be "no." On proposition number four the vote should likewise be "no" in large letters. This is the proposition to repeal all state laws relating to control of the liquor traffic and make Missouri a cesspool of lawlessness. A very good rule would be to vote yes on the first two and no on the last two.

Another thing about the royal Marie. Her presence in our democratic midst has brought a new note in feminine style comment. We're told what the queen wears—not, as in the case of other queens current lately—what she doesn't wear.

Association Notes Say

THE CHANCE FOR COUNTY ROADS IN MISSOURI.

The building of a system of highways in Missouri has given the counties the opportunity to construct their own roads to connect with the state highways. Useful links already have been built here and there, and plans are being made for many more. This is an enterprise in which the counties may engage as they see fit. In some, no doubt it will be felt that the expense of extensive road building cannot be borne at this time. Each county, each community, in fact, can decide the matter for itself. But it is probable that, once the county work gets fairly started, the benefits of the improvement will be so evident they will be sought generally.

Road building, rightly considered, is an investment. It is possible, of course, for a county or even a state to burden itself unduly in an effort to get good roads. But that is not the usual course. In Missouri, the situation is particularly inviting for the counties that have not already built an extensive road mileage. The state highways are being completed, and they are reaching into every county. They cannot serve every farmer or every town or other community. But the benefits from them can be broadened just to the extent that connecting links are established. The county roads, in most cases, need not be expensive. Often a few miles of all-weather road, of gravel or other similar material, will meet requirements. Kansas City Star.

HE USED HIS HEAD.

Seventy-nine years ago a boy, then aged eight years, put his pennies in a glass dish on the mantle. He worked three days in a potato patch. He wasn't satisfied with the wages.

One day he saw a stray turkey hen stealthily making for the woods. He patiently trailed her. For days he hunted her nest. When he found it, he took home the baby chicks and fed them with scraps his mother gave him. He sold them in the fall at the village market.

That was his first money-making enterprise.

And he began to figure and figure. He found that he'd earned less from three days working in the potato patch than the year's interest on the money from his "turkey business."

"So," he concluded "it is easier to have money work for you than it is to work for money."

He put his savings to work. He even took the pennies from the glass dish on the mantle and put them to work.

This boy celebrated his 87th birthday a few days ago. His money worked for him until he accumulated one of the largest fortunes in the world.

The boy was John D. Rockefeller.—Sturgeon Leader.

Stewart's WASHINGTON LETTER

By Charles P. Stewart.
NEA Service Writer.

Washington.—Victor L. Berger seems likely to constitute the entire Socialist delegation in the next Congress.

There are a few other Socialist candidates for seats in the House of Representatives but Berger is the only one likely to win. He has his Milwaukee district pretty well sewed up.

There's a Socialist and a half, as Berger expresses it, in the present Congress. Fiorello H. LaGuardia of New York City was elected on the Socialist ticket but Berger denies that he's Simon-pure.

La Guardia is as independent as they make 'em, but he always called himself a Republican until 1924, when, because he wouldn't stand hitched, his party organization refused him a renomination for Congress.

Thereupon he ran as a Socialist and was elected.

This year, however, the Republicans of his district, profiting by the lesson of 1924, nominated him. Nominally he's a Socialist now, but, if re-elected, he'll be, nominally, a Republican again.

That will leave Berger alone in his glory.

Berger has a mighty good time in Congress and more influence than might be expected of a one or one-and-a-half man party.

Royal Neighbors.

The Royal Neighbors will give a Hallowe'en party Friday night at I. O. O. F. hall, when the families and friends of the members will be entertained. The regular meeting of the organization will be held tomorrow afternoon at I. O. O. F. hall.

Alloway-Hildreth.

Miss Irena Alloway and Carl E. Hildreth were married at 10 o'clock Saturday night in Troy, Kan. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Alloway of this city and Mr. Hildreth is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Hildreth of St. Joseph. The young couple will reside in St. Joseph where the bridegroom is employed by the American Electric Company. For the present Mrs. Hildreth is at the home of her parents in Maryville.

L. I. Club.

Members of the L. I. Club were entertained last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Roy Wilson. The afternoon was spent in quilting for the hostess. The business meeting opened with singing of "Yield Not to Temptation" and the closing song was "My Faith Looks Up to Thee." Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and peaches were served, Mrs. Sadie Pope and Mrs. Neva Trueblood assisted the hostess. It was decided to entertain the families of the members at a Hallowe'en party. The next meeting will be with Mrs Dell Florea when memory gems will form the roll call responses. Those present were Mrs. Sid Ewing, Mrs. Frank Ulmer, Mrs. William Ingles, Mrs. Alvin Trueblood, Mrs. Clarence Pope, Mrs. Rufus Ringgold, Miss Valta Ringgold, Miss Ethel Morris, Mrs. Ida Morris, Mrs. Tillie Hornbuckle, Mrs. Charles Massie, Mrs. Dell Florea, Dale Florea, Earl Florea, and the hostess.

Neighborly Club Party.

The first division of the Skidmore Neighborly Club gave a Hallowe'en party Monday night at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Manning, entertaining the members, their husbands, and a few additional guests. The hostesses included, besides Mrs. Manning, Mrs. W. G. Reynolds, Mrs. Fred Barber, Mrs. L. W. Garnett, Mrs. John Masters and Mrs. L. D. Jordan. The house was artistically decorated with black cats and witches, and refreshments included sandwiches, pumpkin pie, salad and coffee. The following were entertained: Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Oakerson, Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Pierpoint, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Manning, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Montgomery, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hoblitzell, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Owen, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Jordan, Misses Bessie Mitchell, Florence Jordan, Lois McClanahan, Edith Porter, Minnie Kramer, Dora Albright, and Andrew Dodds, Charles White, Joseph Manning and Rudolph Manning.

A. A. U. W. Meets.

Mrs. Charles T. Bell was hostess at the October meeting of the Maryville branch, American Association of University Women, last night at her home on West Third street. Mrs. Clarence Vogt and Miss Mary Fisher were the assisting hostesses. The evening's program was divided into three study groups, the Pre-school Child, International Relations and Current Literature. Miss Mary Keith led the round table discussion on the Pre-School Child and Mrs. M. E. Ford was the leader of the second group, Permanent Court of Arbitration and Permanent Court of International Justice being the themes discussed. The last group included: The Trend of the Modern Novel by Mrs. Virgil Rathbun, and The Changing Drama by Miss Anna Painter. During the business session Miss Blanche Dow was named as legislative chairman, and a committee composed of Mrs. M. E. Ford, chairman, Miss Anna Painter and Miss Franken was appointed to revise the constitution. The following named were admitted to membership: Mrs. Carrie Margaret Caldwell, Miss Violet Eastman, Miss Elizabeth White, Mrs. J. Ross Fleetwood, Miss Lucile Starr, Miss Marguerite Fox, Dr. Ethel Saxman and Miss Mary Fisher. The remainder of the evening was spent socially and refreshments were served.

D. of I. to Meet.

A business meeting of the Daughters of Isabella will be held at 8 o'clock tomorrow night at K. of C. Hall. The annual election of officers will be held.

Shower for Recent Bride.

The girls of the Peoples Telephone office gave a shower Monday evening for Mrs. Charles Riley at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Gilbert, near Barnard. Supper was served preceding the shower. Mrs. Riley was formerly Miss Esther Gilbert. Those present were Mrs. Harold Roelofson, Miss Bernice Howard, Miss Marie Ashford, Miss Etta Marie Stiverson, Miss Dale Skinner and Miss Ruth Clayton.

Entertains Son's Friends.

Mrs. F. W. Crow was hostess at a line party at the Missouri Theater last night, when she entertained seventeen young guests for her son, Warren Crow. The party was chaperoned by Mrs. Crow and Mrs. M. L. Beattie and included Jack Chick, Kenneth Hull, John Hamilton, Paul Foster, William Person, Kirby Bovard, J. W. Shannon, Harry Lyle, Billy Garrett, Jimmie Jackson, Montie Meacham, Bohm Townsend, Ford Bradley, Frederick French, Harold Person, Charles Bell, Lillian Townsend, and the honor guest. After the show refreshments were served.

S. S. Class Party.

The Four-Square Girls' Sunday School class of the Christian Church, taught by Mrs. Garnett Gray Watt, was entertained at a Hallowe'en party last night at the Watt home, 535 West Second street. The members enjoyed an evening of games and stunts, followed by Hallowe'en refreshments. The class members present were Doris Snodgrass, Frances Sellers, Vincent Spoor, Reba Butler, Mina Miller, Golda Wallace, Lois Walton, Mildred Kingery, Norma Short, Ruth King, Helen Kramer and Ruby Lucile Watt. Other guests were Dorothy McDonnell and Virginia Watt.

Hallowe'en Party.

A Hallowe'en party for pupils of the intermediate grade of the Pickering public schools taught by Mrs. Roy Schrader, was held last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy McMullin in Pickering. The guests were entertained at various Hallowe'en stunts and games and refreshments were served. The prize for the bestlooking costume for couple went to Robert Mann and Jean Swinford. These pupils were entertained: Harold McArthur, James Bosch, Sammie Smith, Lester Swaney, Paul Creager, Robert Mann, George Smith, Fay Florea, jr., Glen Loch, Lloyd McGuire, Florence Lincoln, Esther Jones, Emma Louis Smith, Vera Creager, Frances Doughty, Jean Swinford, Eva Laverne McMullin, Ruby Gray, Alice Hanna, Beulah Marie Gray, Verlene Wilson, Mary Whitten, and Dorothy Wilson. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Dempster, Miss Hulda Lunte, Mrs. Byron and John Bosch.

M. I. Circle Party.

The annual fall festival of the Mutual Improvement Circle took the form of an old fashioned Hallowe'en party yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Robert Lyle on East Seventh street. Ghosts and witches met the guests, who were escorted down the back stairs into the basement where cider was served from an iron bound bucket drawn from an imaginary well. A color scheme of black and yellow and black cats were used throughout the rooms. The president, Mrs. J. E. Melvin, presided at the meeting which opened with the devotions led by the hostess. Ghost stories formed the roll call responses. The program consisted of two solos by Mrs. Floyd Ambrose, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Harry Mutz; two selections on the violin by Miss Lucile Gaugh and Miss Audrey Stiwalt, accompanied by Mrs. J. W. Hake; and a song by Miss Stiwalt. Dominoes were played at six tables and after the games refreshments were served by the committee consisting of Mrs. W. W. Stiwalt, Mrs. J. M. Hantze and Mrs. J. D. Ford. The guests included Mrs. John Vert, Mrs. W. R. Wells, Mrs. George Greeson, Mrs. Harry Mutz, Mrs. J. W. Hake, Mrs. P. P. Moore, Mrs. D. A. Caldwell, Mrs. J. H. Eckles, Miss Clara Roelofson of Kansas City, Mrs. Elmer Holt, Miss Lucile Gaugh and Miss Audrey Stiwalt. Seventeen members were in attendance.

College Party.

The annual Hallowe'en party will be given at the College this coming Friday night. As in the past everyone is invited to come in a masquerade costume and join in the fun. Even though one can not come in a costume he is invited to come anyway. The party is being sponsored by the Y. M. C. A., and the Y. W. C. A. The party is scheduled to start at eighty o'clock and plenty of time for having a grand and glorious evening has been promised. Every College student is invited to come out and help the goblins and the witches perform on the night of October twenty-ninth.—Northwest Missourian.

Three States Hunt Her Slayer

Officials of Indiana, Ohio and Kentucky are hunting for the man who beat Miss Beulah Purvis, 19, of Lawrenceburg, Ind., to death and threw her body into the Big Miami River near Cincinnati. Beulah, one of 14 living children in a family that recently moved to Lawrenceburg from the Kentucky mountains, had been missing for a week before her body was found.

MR. FAUST AT WASHINGTON.

Two days ago this newspaper referred to Congressman Faust's service to the home folks, enumerating some of the larger things that has been done for our community through his efforts at Washington. There is now occasion to say that achievement in Washington is not easy. There are members of the lower house of congress in various degrees of ability and enterprise. Eminence and effectiveness in this body, as in other assemblies and in communities, gravitates to those of quality. No member without these attributes could have the recognition that Mr. Faust has in Washington. It is safe to say, that since the service of the late James A. Barnes, no member from the Fourth district has gone as high and wrought with such success for his constituents as Mr. Faust.

Two years ago Mr. Faust was appointed upon an important committee to investigate the government's air service, and only recently he was made a member of the powerful ways and means committee of the house, a place of honor in committees, and one which has never, within memory, gone to a member from this district. This is the committee that shapes the tariff, and those of the district who are concerned about the tariff will certainly be better off with Mr. Faust in congress and upon this committee than with one who is a novice in congressional work, a stranger in Washington, and of the minority party. Mr. Faust spent two months in Washington before the last session of congress opened, meeting with the committee which drafted the income tax bill, a measure that met with such approval that it was supported by Republicans and Democrats alike and is now a law.

And the recognition that is accorded Mr. Faust in Washington has also been of value in the intimate and personal service he has given his constituents. Hundreds of veterans can thank him for prompt attention to their cases, and hundreds of others having difficulties of various kinds with the government have had prompt attention and relief through his efforts. Whether appeals were from communities, Republicans, Democrats or members of other parties, or of no parties, they were given early response. Mr. Faust is in close touch with the administration and has contacts that are invaluable to people of this district.

Why change our representation in congress? It would be folly to discard Mr. Faust when his opportunities for ily increasing (Swi service are best and his prestige is steadily increasing.

Country Participates in Navy Celebration

Washington, Oct. 27.—Up and down the coasts and in inland cities, naval officials today are driving home to the American people the need of adequate sea defense.

From Secretary of the Navy Curtis D. Wilbur, who will speak from Washington over a long radio hookup, to the humblest "gob" welcoming guests aboard ship, the service is concentrating on "selling this Navy Day to the country."

Assistant Secretary of the Navy Robinson it to speak at the Navy Day celebration of the Philadelphia Sesquicentennial, and Assistant Secretary Warner will make an address at Little Rock, Ark. General A. C. Dalton, president of the U. S. Emergency Fleet Corporation, will participate in the radio program here with Wilbur.

Under special orders, warship commanders are holding "open-house" for townsfolk in various ports, explaining the mysteries of fighting craft to the visitors.

Theater Is Hobby of Agnes Repplier

The theater, "if that can be called a hobby," is the favorite recreation of Agnes Repplier, noted American essayist and lecturer.

"Beyond my work, which very fully occupies me, I have few activities" Miss Repplier told the United Press. "But the theater, ever since my girlhood, has been an unceasing delight to me. As a child we were allowed frequently to go to plays for then five out of six productions were Shakespeare, and playgoing for the young was regarded more in the light of education than entertainment.

"I find the same pleasure in many of the modern plays, and one can name two or three almost every season that are first rate dramatic works, judged in the strictest standards.

"I remember the great older actors Booth, Barrett, Fetcher, the Danish actor, Davenport, Jefferson and others. I remember, some years ago astounding John Drew when I told him I had seen his grandmother on the stage at a benefit performance."

The movies, Miss Repplier feels are "uncommonly dull."

The settings and mechanics of the films are extraordinarily fine" she said, "but the looseness of theme and the liberties taken by scenario writers and producers with many of the standard works they adapt to their medium detracts from the dramatic and entertainment value of the original and tends to weaken the interest of the audience.

Faust Gives Talk at Meeting of Veterans

About forty-five veterans of three American wars heard a short address by Representative Charles Faust of St. Joseph at a meeting last night in the rooms of the Veterans Association. A "feed" followed Mr. Faust's talk. The congressman spoke along non-political lines, discussing the American form of government and reviewing briefly the wars in which the United States has engaged and the part played by the nation's military forces.

The audience included veterans of the World War, the Spanish-American War and the Civil War.

Congressman Faust spoke at Guilford yesterday afternoon to a good crowd at the high school auditorium. His address was on the fundamentals of the government and was not a political address.

Accompanied by several Republicans of Maryville and a number of candidates, Congressman Faust was to speak in Parnell this afternoon and at Ravenwood tonight. He is to return to this county Saturday and will speak in Maryville at the Missouri Theatre Saturday afternoon.

HOPE FOR BIG REGISTRATION

BIRTH—DEATH REPORT DRIVE GETS RESULTS.

1920 RECORD COMES IN

Neglect Makes Government Requirements Very Difficult, Says County Health Officer.

The national campaign launched by the government to urge the registration of births and deaths is getting results in Nodaway County at least, Dr. C. P. Fryer, county health physician, announced today.

Yesterday two birth certificates were registered at the physician's office, one reporting a birth in 1920 and a second reporting a birth in 1925.

"Such neglect makes the 90 per cent registration required by the government very difficult," Dr. Fryer said.

All states reporting at least 90 per cent of their deaths and births are included in the registered area by the United States government. Now 38 states are in the area the health officer explained. It is thought that Nodaway County as well as this state will furnish the required 90 per cent this year, he said.

This and That

One young husband in Maryville, namely George Butts of the Deemocrat-Forum and Tribune staff, was enjoying his usual good noon meal one day last week and was ready to partake of a particularly delicious looking piece of pie.

He took one bite. His mother, who was visiting at his home, asked if the pie were good. She had made it.

Looking rather pale George answered with a weak yes. He left the table as quickly as possible.

When his mother and wife tasted the pie it was revealed that mustard had been used by error for other more tasty spices and poor George had been fed "mustard pie."

A wise-cracker has said that the burying of the wrong man in the cemetery at Moberly recently was a "grave mistake."

TWO PRIESTS SENT ABROAD

FATHER LAWRENCE, FORMERLY HERE, NOW IN CHINA.

ANOTHER TO BRAZIL

Father Benedict, for 25 Years at Conception College, Now Is Teaching in South America.

Two members of the Benedictine family at Conception Abbey have left recently for duty in foreign countries, according to the latest issue of the Morning Star, fortnightly publication of the students of Conception College.

The Rev. Father Lawrence, a former pastor of St. Mary's Church here, now is at the Catholic Academy of Kaifung, at Kaifung, Honan, China, where he was called to establish the rule of St. Benedict among the Catholic clergy who are professors there and who expressed to the bishop their desire to become Benedictines.

Father Lawrence was selected for the mission by Abbot Philip, at the request of the bishop of that district in China, who made a special visit to America.

The Rev. Father Benedict Villiger, for a quarter of a century a teacher at Conception College, has gone to South America at the request of the president of Monasterio de S. Bento, St. Paulo, Brazil, to fill a vacancy in astronomy and chemistry at that college.

Father Benedict was born at Auw, Switzerland, October 14, 1875. After completing a classical course and philosophy with the Benedictines of Sarnen, he came to Conception in 1896 and a year later joined the Benedictine order. Finishing theology at the Conception monastery, he was ordained by the late Bishop Burke of St. Joseph on June 29, 1900.

The first two years after his ordination Father Benedict served as prefect of the college. Later he took a postgraduate course in higher mathematics, astronomy and chemistry at Creighton University and at the University of Chicago. Besides teaching the three subjects, he found time to look after the spiritual interests of the Burlington Junction and several Savannah missions.

Father Benedict has been succeeded at Conception College by Father Clement as teacher of physics and higher mathematics, Father Timothy as teacher of chemistry and Father Isidore as teacher of mathematics.

Monastery Orchard Raises Bumper Crop

The Monastery apple orchard at Conception brought forth an exceedingly good crop this year, surpassing that of last year by 500 bushels, according to the Morning Star, the fortnightly publication of Conception College students. Last year there were approximately 3,000 bushels. There is quite a variety of apples in the orchard. The most important of these are Jonathan, Starks Delicious, Golden Delicious, and King David. They vary in prices from $1.25 to $2.25, the Starks Delicious being the most expensive.

The orchard itself consists of about ten acres containing nearly 700 apple trees. No doubt this orchard produces above the standard in production, compared with others of its own size. This is perhaps largely due to the excellent care which it receives under the supervision of Brother Benedict, says the Morning Star. Besides the other cares that serve to make an excellent orchard it is sprayed four different times each season with a mixture of arsenate of lead, lime sulphur, bordo mixed with sulphate.

Up to the present only one car load (1,000 bushels) of apples have been shipped away, this to St. John's Abbey, though quite a number of them have been sold to the local customers.

Girl Reserves Hold Meeting This Morning

The junior and senior Girl Reserves of the Maryville High School met with their sponsor, Miss Fannie Hope, this morning. The theme of discussion was "The Greatest Thing in the World—Love." Before the program a business session on charity was held. Mildred Sandison presided.

The program follows: Scripture, Ellen Wiles, prayer; "True Characteristics of Love," Virginia Wright; piano duet, Nettie and Nellie Russell; "Love, Foundation of Honor, Courtesy and Hospitality," Marzella Clary; musical reading, "Apple Blossoms," Pauline Nichols; "Love Power in Friendship," Beverly Martin.

Mrs. Lora Steele of Iola, Kan., left this morning for her home after a ten day's visit at the home of her son, F. W. Steele, and family.

J. Howard Thompson, Correspondent.

Lemuel Timmons, who was so unfortunate to brek his right leg near the ankle joint a month ago, is able now to get about on crutches. He was uptown for the first time last Monday afternoon. His wife who suffered a fracture of her left arm at the same time is yet unable to get much use of her arm and hand.

Rev. and Mrs. J. Howard Thompson were in Maryville Monday, Mr. Thompson to attend the county committee, created for the defeat of proposition No. 4. While in the city they were dinner guests of Mrs. George Epperson, and her daughter, Ethel. Some years ago Mr. Thompson was the pastor of his good family.

The home coming at the Methodist church last Sunday immediately following the morning service was a great success in every way. The weather being inclement, the dinner was given in the league room of the church. It was largely attended, and there were many well filled baskets, furnishing plenty and to spare. Many of the Christian church people were invited and they with their filled baskets came in company with their pastor, the Rev. Alva A. Ragsdale, to enjoy the fellowship of the occasion. The day was a memorable one.

Rev. A. L. Ragsdale, who is pastor of the Christian Church here, is also pastor of Workman Chapel, a very flourishing country church, seven miles east of town. He began a series of meetings out there Monday night of this week to continue two weeks.

On our way home from Maryville last Monday afternoon it seemed that all the black cats of the country was out their afternoon outing, as three very fine specimens of the cat family, and as black as could be, crossed the road immediately in fornt of our car. Had we been the least bit superstitious we might have worried over the approach of some bad result. But as it was we got home in perfect safety, and without any evil whatever befalling us.

There was a decided increase in the attendance in the Sunday Schools of town last Sunday. The religious interest of the entire community, is being manifested in very many and different ways. If you want a quiet, cultured place in which to rear a family, Burlington Junction is the place. Her citizens are of the finest type, cultured, intelligent, law abiding, peace loving, and splendid. We invite you to become one of us.

Carl Cochran of College Springs, Ia., came Monday of this week for a ten days' visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cochrap, one mile east of town. This will be his last visit here for some time as he expects soon to start to Southern Texas with his parents to make his home. He is a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Cochran, who will regret his going so far away.

Mrs. Eliza Wolfers and her daughter, Mary, are at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Corken for a visit. Mrs. Wolfers and Mrs. Corken's mother, and Miss Mary, her sister. They make their home in Pickering.

Harold Staples, a student in Drake University, Des Moines, Iowa, came home for a week end visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Staples, and to visit his many other friends in the community. He returned Sunday night to his school duties.

The bankrupt sale on the Miles east place, west of town, three miles, Tuesday afternoon, was not very large attended, and thinks sold slowly and cheaply. The men present didn't seem to be in an enthusiastic buying mood. C. P. Hosmer of Maryville was the auctioneer, and the sale was under the direction of Henry Staples, of Burlington Junction, and trustee for the creditors.

Rev. J. Howard Thompson was in Clearmont and Elmo on business in connection with proposition number four Tuesday morning. Mrs. Thompson accompanied him on the trip. Later they went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Miles Fast, where they spent the day.

Doctors E. F. Buck, president of Missouri Wesleyan College, and Ben F. Jones, field representative fof the same, were in town Monday afternoon on business in connection with the school. While in this community, they also visited Clearmont and Elmo.

The writer was appointed group leader, involving the churches located at Burlington Junction, Clearmont, Elmo, Quitman, Skidmore, Burr Oak, Maitland, and Graham, and a meeting of the pastors of these communities are asked to meet in Burlington Junction Saturday afternoon at one o'clock, to work out some program and plans for the campaign soon to be put on in the interest of the Missouri Methodist Hospital located in St. Joseph.

T. L. Good, traveling salesman for Nave-McCord Grocery Company, and who lives here in town, fully realizes how bad the roads are over which he has to travel. On a recent trip, he broke a spring on his car, and while he managed to get into the garage with it finally, he had a rather lively experience doing it. He is a strong advocate for good roads.

Attorney Ellis Cook of Maryville attended the sale at the Fast farm Tuesday, and was a dinner guest with Mr. and Mrs. Miles Fast. After the sale was over he drove to College Springs and Elmo on business before returning home.

Mrs. Della Forbes and Mrs. Helen Browning, both of Burlington Junction, were in Maryville, Tuesday afternoon doing some shopping and visiting friends. They made the trip in Mrs. Forbes car.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Farrell are happy in having their son, Martin, from Scotts Bluff, Neb., as their guest at this time. He will remain for a few weeks at the parental home.

The electric range is becoming more and more popular it seems. Two were installed in Burlington Junction homes within the recent days, the homes being that of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Evans, and that of Dr. and Mrs. Cossih.

The Independent Order of Odd Fellows, and Rebekah Lodges gave a masked Hallowe'en party in their hall Tuesday night, when about seventy five people attended. There were about forty masks worn and many of them were very unique and clever. Prizes were given to the ones with best and most interesting mask. Chuck Kable of Wilcox and Miss Alberta Harris of Burlington Junction receiving the prizes, Mr. Kable, a five cent stick of peper mint candy, and Miss Harris, a box of roasted peanuts. A program consisting of piano music, a reading by Miss Alberta Harris, an address each by J. Howard Thompson, and Homer Carmichael, was given after which a luncheon consisting of sandwiches, pickles, coffee, with cream and sugar, and pumpkin pie was served. Mrs. Johnson was master of ceremonies, and had charge of all the activities.

The following persons living out of town, attended the masked party given by the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs Tuesday night in their hall. Chuck Kable, with Mrs. Kable and their daughter Guelda, Artice Thompson, Mrs. Fern Lamber, and Mr. and Mrs. Olen Shelton, all of Wilcox, and Mrs. Lou Livengood and Jennie Duncan of Elmo, Mo.

Herschel Houston is in Topeka, Kan., this week, representing the DeLaval Separator Company, by whom he is employed as salesman. He will be gone most of the week, getting home for a week end visit with home folks.

Miss Maggie Morgan of Pickering was brought to Burlington Junction Tuesday of this week, suffering severely from gall bladder infection. She was hurried to St. Joseph where she entered the Missouri Methodist Hospital, and was operated upon this Wednesday morning. Her case is serious. Her many friends will hope for a speedy recovery. Mrs. Dr. Hindman, a graduate nurse, accompanied her to the hospital.

William Draper of Ames, Iowa, drove in in his car Tuesday night from his Iowa home to prepare and ship his store fixtures to Ames. Christopher Fox accompanied him and is assisting with the work. Mr. Draper recently purchased the grocery store and meat market from H. A. Dalby, and disposed of the stock at once and is now getting ready to dispose with the fixtures. Burlington Junction would have been glad to have had him remain, as he seems a very congenial gentleman. The store room will not remain empty long, I predict.

STEWART'S WASHINGTON LETTER

By Charles P. Stewart.
NEA Service Writer.

Washington.—They were talking at the Department of Agriculture of the work of Luther Burbank.

It was agreed that he probably was the greatest of all plant breeders.

However, to think of him as the founder of a science is all wrong, the agricultural savants added; the breeding and development of plants and animals is as old as farming and stock raising.

A few of the older breeders were nearly as great and worked about as fast as Burbank, but most of them are unknown to fame, many were prehistoric, and the transformations they accomplished in plant and animal life took generations and centuries.

Not so many generations ago, contributed another of the experts, the peach was exclusively a semi-tropical fruit—rather more sensitive to cold than the present day orange.

Now it thrives in the northernmost of the states.

Republican Victory Predicted by Press

ELECTION PROSPECTS ARE BRIGHT, COMMENTS SHOW.

Trend All Over State Points To A Growing Sentiment For All Republican Candidates.

Comments on the November election, appearing in rural newspapers all over Missouri, point to a widespread interest in the Republican ticket, and sucess at the polls is predicted in all quarters. Among the recent statements appearing in the state press are the following:

Worth County Tribune (Grant City): With his standing already established in the senate, and the good start already made as an advocate of river improvement, Senator Williams should be returned to Washington to continue the fine fight so well under way. A vote for Senator Williams at the coming election will be a vote in the interest of the farmers of the territory tributary to the Missouri river.

The Nevada Herald: The only good times this country ever enjoyed was under a protective tariff, so the Republican party is for more of the same and is willing for the fact to be blazoned from the housetops. If the G. O. P. cannot win on that understanding, then it does not want to win. So that's that.

Burlington Junction Post: The Republican party is presenting a ticket of unusual strength at this year's election. Every man on both the state and county tickets is worthy of the office he seeks and is qualified to fill it.

Springfield Republican: His friends have every reason for looking forward with confidence to a record-breaking vote for Senator Williams in this Republican Southwest in the election now less than a month away.

Cameron Sun: Reason, sound and convincing, is being used by Senator George H. Williams in his campaign for election. Missouri will add to its national good repute by retaining him in his public capacity.

Belle Banner: In past days it might have been possible for Reed and Hay and Hawes to pull the wool over the eyes of the people, but that time is gone forever. George H. Williams will be our next United States senator by the largest majority ever given a Republican for such an office.

St. Charles Cosmos-Monitor: The general election is not far in the distance. There never was an election more important than the one on November 2. Senator Williams is the man to be sent back to the senate where he has in a few short months made for himself a record that all good citizens can feel proud of.

Carrollton Republican-Record: Senator Williams has proven himself to be an able expounder or safe and sane national and international policies, and Republican of all the counties in Missouri can do no better than to follow his wise leadership.

LEE DOUBLES FORCE.

Charles A. Lee, state superintendent of public schools, who made his campaign slogan on economy in 1922, promising to conduct his department at less expense than any of his predecessors, has been spending more money in the discharge of his duties from the first than was ever spent before by any incumbent of this office. Lee has not only maintained a larger office force, but twice as many school inspectors and other field men, notwithstanding the fact that his task is not materially greater than was the successful management of the office by his predecessor, Sam A. Baker.

Prepared and Submitted by Democratic County Committee, C. F. McCaffrey, Chairman.

Charles M. Hay says that is is perfectly true, as Gov. Hyde charges, that Democrats are singing "Rescue the Perishing." He adds that "Why wouldn't they, when they think of the Teapot Dome, the Veterans' Bureau, the Pennsylvania primaries, the Aluminum Trust, the robber tariff, the plight of the farmers, of Daugherty and Fall and Forbes and Denby and Smith and Newberry and Vare and Mellon?" When Charley hits, he hits hard.

The people of Missouri should guard against last minute trickery in the present campaign. Senator Williams has evaded a definite stand on all important issues; he has tried to play both sides; he is fearful of losing one vote that he might be able to hold to his standard by shunning a direct statement on numerous issues. When a candidate uses those tactics in a campaign he will bear watching. He is out to get votes and he doesn't care much how he gets them. He is not above trickery. Senator Williams got his political schooling in ward politics in St. Louis. He knows the game. Watch him.

HE SHOULD BE ELECTED.

A supreme judge should be a man of mature age, sound judgment and judicial experience. He should know the law and all the ins and outs of court practice. He should be a man of high character, sober and clear headed, and a man whose desire is to do justice to all men and to uphold and honor the laws of the land. In addition to all this he should have plenty of good common sense in the application of his ideals and his legal learning. Judge Gantt, the democratic nominee for judge of the state supreme court has all these requirements. He should be elected and he will be a credit to the high and honorable body to which he aspires.

A BOOST FROM WASHINGTON.

Greetings, and hail to Missouri. They tell me you're going to elect Harry Hawes, Democrat, Senator down there to take the place of Senator Williams, who is trying to succeed himself. Good for you. That's exactly what you ought to do. Senator Williams was appointed to take the place of Senator Spencer, deceased, but he has been here long enough to show that his heart is with the crowd that wants to run things for their own selfish interests, and that he is quite a fellow to trim.

How the world dispises a trimmer. Senator Williams declared the Haugen bill to be "uneconomic and unsound," and a few minutes later voted for it; they say he is dry to the drys, and wet to the wets; the record shows he voted against taking up the Reed resolution to investigate primary debaucheries, and then voted for the resolution—he got on two sides there in seven and one-half minutes.

Harry Hawes, whom I have known for years, is sound to the core as a Democrat; he bought and distributed scores of Claud Bowers' "Jefferson and Hamilton," which would make Missouri Democratic ten to one if every voter in that great state would read it and study it; he voted against the present robber tariff law; for the packer's control bill, worked earnestly and voted for the return of the seized alien property (one of the blackest spots in our history is keeping that private property—every Missouri German should vote for him for what he did in this); he has constantly represented the sentiment of Missouri, and will be a Senator of whom that state will be proud. The Missouri Republicans have bitter factions now; the Democrats are all working, and have the best organization since 1916. Hurrah for Senator Harry Hawes. Wish I could vote for him.—W. D. Jamieson, in "The Window Seat."

Policeman Looks on as Man Tries Suicide

Laiach, Jugoslavia, Oct. 27.—While a policeman looked on for half a minute at what he thought was the prank of a half-drunk man the man almost succeeded in drowning himself.

Near Laibach flows a small brook, which is normally less than six inches deep. In this brook the policeman found the man just as he lay down and stuck his face into the water.

"What are you doing there?" the policeman called out.

"Let me alone. I am killing myself," the man responded; and placed his face again in the water.

The policeman thought that the man was playing a joke on him, so he laughed and started to go away.

On second thought, however, he decided to investigate. By the time he reached the brook the man was unconscious. Ten minutes of resuscitation work was necessary to bring him around.

Coal Is Cheap.

The VANITY CASE

by Carolyn Wells

NEA FICTION

© 1926 by G. P. PUTNAM SONS

BEGIN HERE TODAY.

MRS. PRENTISS sees lights mysteriously appear and disappear in the HEATH household next door one night and the next day Harbor Gardens, Long Island, is agog with the murder of MYRA HEATH and the disappearance of her husband, PERRY.

House guests of the Heaths are LAWRENCE INMAN, heir to Myra's fortune, and BUNNY MOORE, vivacious, golden-haired, to whom suspicion points because of her refusal to answer questions.

Myra Heath was peculiar: She never used cosmetics, never wore colors. She had a mania for collecting glass, and it was a rare old whisky bottle from her collection that the murderer used to kill her. Candles were burning at her head and feet and nearby was a card marked, "The Work of Perry Heath." Strangest of all, she was heavily made up and garbed in gay colors.

The peculiar thing about Heath's disappearance is that all the windows and doors had been locked on the inside the night before and were found that way in the morning. Finger prints of Bunny Moore and Inman were found on the bottle.

At the Country Club the murder is iscussed by SAM ANDERSON, Heath's rival for the club presidency; AL CUNNINGHAM, who is trying to solve the crime, and others. Some believe Heath the murderer. Anderson disagrees. TODHUNTER BUCK, nephew of Mrs. Prentiss and in love with Bunny, suggests to Cunningham that Heath also may have been murdered.

EMMA, a waitress in the Heath home, tells of Seeing Bunny ascend the stairs about the time of the murder, carrying her vanity case. Later Bunny is amazed to get a phone call from Perry Heath telling her Inman is guilty. Bunny breaks down and faints under a grilling by DETECTIVE MOTT, who makes up his mind that she is guilty. Inman confides to Buck that he saw Bunny creeping the stairs after the murder, and Mott, questions all the servants and tells them to keep silent.

Cunningham gets a note from Anderson and goes to his house where Perry Heath suddenly appears out of the night and begins to talk.

Anderson invites Cunningham to his house and there, while waiting for his host, Cunningham is suddenly confronted by Perry Heath, who disappears as mysteriously as he had appeared. Shortly afterward, Anderson comes in, and he reproahes Cunningham for letting Heath get away.

TODHUNTER BUCK, who is in love with Bunny, is a witness to a nocturnal meeting between the girl and Heath. He tries to get Bunny to explain and when she refuses he calls in his friend, STEVE TRUITT, a famous detective. Bunny tells Truitt she had gone downstairs the night of the murder and seen Myra Heath, not yet cold in death, and Inman peeping from behind a curtain.

Truitt questions Inman and then, inspecting the Heath home, discovers something peculiar about a window. He then rejoins Buck and the latter's aunt, MRS. PRENTISS.

Truitt arranges for a meeting with Sam Anderson. He then takes Buck with him and enters the Heath Bungalow by a French window, saying Heath will come in shortly.

Heath does, and Truitt arrests him. On the way to the station, Heath asks permission to get some letters from his locker at the club house. A few minutes later Anderson comes out, saying he has seen Heath in the locker room, but Heath vanishes. The next day police get a note from Heath, confessing to the crime and saying he will commit suicide. Truitt, taking Buck and DETECTIVE MOTT, departs for headquarters.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY.

CHAPTER XLVII.

The two men went away, and Truitt led their steps to police headquarters.

There he gave a straightforward and accurate account of what had happened the night before.

Mott looked crestfallen enough when he listened to how the two men had captured Heath, but his small eyes gleamed with triumph, when he learned how their quarry had given them the slip.

Truitt paid little attention to his attitude or expression, but merely said:

"You have Perry Heath's confession of his crime?"

"Yes, we have it."

"Keep it carefully, and I will take you to Perry Heath, himself."

Amazed looks greeted this statement, and Mott again turned green with his absurd jealousy.

"I think we'll collect Mr. Cunningham, too," Truitt said, and so, with the necessary police officers, there was quite a little group who hung upon Truitt's orders as on a general's.

Truitt walked ahead with Cunningham, having Buck to follow with the disgruntled Mott.

The officers were asked to remain within summons, but outside the house as Truitt stopped at the gate of Sam Anderson's place.

"Anderson is hiding Heath!" Ted thought to himself, with a thrill at the excitement of it all.

The four were admitted and Mr. Anderson was apprised of their presence by one of his perfectly trained servants.

He came smiling into the room.

"Good morning," he said, "good morning. This is indeed a deputation. What can I do for you? Funds for some public monument?"

"No, Mr. Anderson," Truitt was spokesman. "We just want to ask you a few questions about the Perry Heath case. We know you are interested, enough so, to engage the services of Mr. Cunningham here, and so I feel sure you will help us in any further way you can."

"Certainly I will, and glad to do so. But, Mr.—er—Truitt, you remember I told you I saw Perry Heath last night."

Mott's eyes bulged, and Al Cunningham looked startled, but Truitt said, sauvely, "I remember you did, Mr. Anderson. You were both in the club locker room, weren't you?"

"Yes. Though I don't think Heath saw me. You see, I was just coming out when he breezed in, and hurried to his own locker, across the room from mine. He paid no attention to me, and I was so surprised, I said nothing to him. It was in my mind to hurry out and call headquarters, then I saw you, Mr. Truitt, and I realized that you represented the law, so, as you assured me you were on the job, I did no more about it, but came along home."

"And then what did you do, Mr. Anderson?"

"Then I went to bed, sir, and to sleep."

"Yes, but before you went to bed?"

"After I came home from the club, I went nowhere else. As I say, I went to bed—"

"And I say, Mr. Anderson, you went over to Harbor Gardens."

"Over to Harbor Gardens! My dear sir, you must be out of your head!"

"Oh, no. I'm not," and Truitt laughed softly. "You see, I went home, and later, Mr. Buck and I went into the Heath house next door to Mr. Buck's home, and we spent some time there."

"Yes?" Anderson's tone was disinterestedly polite.

"Yes, and while we were there, Perry Heath came in."

"Heath!" You amaze me!"

"Oh, no, Mr. Anderson, I don't amaze you, because while Heath was there, you were there, too."

"I!"

"Yes, you. When Perry Heath was there, you were there, too, for the simple reason that Perry Heath could not be there without you. For,—sit still Mr. Anderson, for you are Perry Heath.

With a sudden swift move, Truitt was on his feet and at Anderson's side.

With a series of quick moves he had put on Anderson's head a toupee that covered his baldness, and had also adjusted into place a pair of shell rimmed glasses.

Perry Heath sat before them!

"Put in your tooth?" said Truitt, so sternly, that the man before him pulled from his waistcoat pocket a single tooth on a plate and slipped it into the place of the missing eye tooth of Sam Anderson.

"Oh, what a fool I was!" exclaimed Cunningham. "The night I was here to supper, Anderson had that in, and he left the table to remove it,—and I never caught on that it was a disguise! But Perry Heath! I can't believe it—or understand it!"

"There is no Perry Heath," Truitt said, "or rather, there is no Sam Anderson. Do you want to tell the story, Heath, or shall I?"

"There's not much to tell," Heath said sullenly. "You fellows have got me, I might as well own up. I'm a bad egg, but I-oh, well, I was goaded into it. I won't speak ill of the dead, but my wife and I never hit it off. She was of the high and mighty variety, and I was a good fellow. So, I conceived the plan of being two men. It has been done before,—it isn't at all a unique instance.

"I built up a second personality, that's all there was to it. I was often away from home, down in New York, half of every week or so. Lots of the Harbor people are. So, when I wasn't at home I was making myself into Sam Anderson, a man as different as possible from Perry Heath. Appearance first, of course. This wasn't hard as I have a bald head, and always wear a toupee—as Heath, I mean. But, my toupees were so perfectly made and fitted, that no one but my wife ever suspected I wore one. The glasses which are capital for disguise purposes, are simply plain, clear glass, and no one knew that. The false tooth is a natural thing for any man to have, but using it only as Heath, it helped to accentuate the difference. For the rest, the style of dress and hat and tie and all that, made two men of me. I practiced a slightly different voice, but, on the whole, it required only a light disguise, for so few Harbor Gardens people know Harbor Park people and vice versa."

"You had two separate lines of business?!" Truitt asked, fascinated in spite of himself by the story.

HARMONY

The rain of Saturday made the roads rather muddy for the services Sunday, although the attendance was fair considering everything. Sunday school was held as usual, with most of the teachers and officers present. At the 11 o'clock hour the Rev. Uht of Ravenwood preached a gospel sermon that was listened to with close attention. The text was from James and consisted of the phrase "What is your life." The subject was treated in a very logical and interesting manner. Next Sunday morning it is expected that the Rev. J. T. Alsup will preach at the morning hour and in the evening there will be a meeting addressed by a speaker sent out by the county association against proposition No. 4. It is hoped that there will be a good attendance at both these services.

Louis Sampson, who is a traveling salesman out of Kansas City, visited with his cousin, B. K. Lewis and family over Sunday.

E. R. Besco, who lost his farm residence by fire Monday Oct. 18, already has the lumber on the ground for a modern bungalow. The lumber was hauled out by his neighbors Wednesday of last week from Ravenwood.

Quite a number have been putting up a fourth cutting of alfalfa during the sunny days of last week.

J. S. Casteel was an attendant of the preaching service last Sunday morning.

The Ladies Aid had a very well attended and interesting meeting at the church last Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Wells and Mrs. Strader had charge of the program.

And just as the roads were getting passable it rained.

Quite an acreage of wheat will be sowed in this neighborhood if weather conditions permit.

E. R. Besco and R. V. McKee were hauling lumber from Ravenwood last Monday.

Harry Lyle and family of Maryville were Sunday guests at the B. K. Lewis home.

School Notes.

On account of taking on the Gaynor High School basketball team for two games last week, our boys played four conference games during the week, winning three of them. Two games with Gaynor resulted in victory for Harmony by a score of 24 to 18 and 25 to 18, one game was played here and one at Gaynor. Wednesday the team, accompanied by practically the entire high school, journeyed to Conception, where we won our game by a score of 31 to 12. Friday evening on the home court Harmony played the fast Ravenwood quintet and were defeated by a score of 22 to 16.

This game closed the most successful season we have ever had in basketball, with a percentage of 500, we having won half of the eight games played. Other games will be played but this closes the schedule of conference games.

First quarter examinations next Thursday and Friday.

At the regular assembly period next Tuesday, Mrs. J. J. Heifner of Maryville will speak to our students on the subject of the Braille system of reading for the blind.

Vernon Barrett, who will have charge of our orchestra this year, was present and gave instruction Saturday. The rain prevented some from being present, and also prevented the holding of the orchestra practice as it is planned to do.

AN ANESTHETIC IS NOT HARD TO TAKE

The Way Modern Experts Perform Simple Operations Is Far Less Painful Than Having a Tooth Pulled in the Old Way.

By ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D.
United States Senator From New York.
Former Commissioner of Health, New York City.

Operations are not such dreadful things. But I confess that I always dreaded the idea of having any operation performed on me.

In spite of the fact that for twenty or thirty years I was operating on other people, I never had to have anything done to my anatomy. During that time I saw thousands of anesthetics administered, and yet I always felt that I should hate to take one myself.

When the occasion came to take an anesthetic and have an operation, after it was all over I was positively ashamed of myself to think I had dreaded it. In the hands of the skillful physician, an anesthetic is easily administered, and you will be surprised, if you have never had the experience, to find how quickly and comfortably you lose consciousness.

It will probably not be necessary for you to have an operation, but it is a good thing to know what operations are like. Then if fate decrees you must go on the surgical table it won't be a dreadful shock to you.

What wit was it who said: "The trouble with most folks is that they know too many things that aren't true?" The worst operations never happen! Thousands of persons go about with their hearts full of trouble—they are living in dread of operations which will never be required.

If you suspect there is something wrong with you and that an operation is necessary, go to your doctor at once. You should find out exactly what is the matter. Better still, it is wonderful to find there is nothing the matter with you. When the doctor tells you there is nothing wrong it will make you happy. You will be glad then to lean on his comforting words.

But suppose the doctor says you need a trifling operation—what then? Are you to tear your hair and loudly bemoan your fate?

When I think how we used to sit in the dental chair and have a couple of teeth extracted, I am ready to say a major operation today is mild in comparison. There was no cocain in that day, no laughing gas in the ordinary office, no anesthetic at all. The cruel forceps, and the powerful arm of the dentist yanked out the tooth while his knee was pressed into your stomach to hold you in the chair!

But now an expert in anesthetics, knowing exactly how to administer the well-chosen agent, puts you to sleep in a jiffy. He does his work so skilfully there is slight nausea and little vomiting afterward.

The kind surgeon has knowledge of drugs and measures to make you comfortable when you have shaken off the effects of the anesthetic. In a few days you are out of bed and better than ever before.

Answers To Health Queries.

Miss E. H. Q.—What is the cause of pimples and how can they be cleared up? 2—What will make the neck and face plump? I eat nourishing foods but do not gain. 3—What will clear up whiteheads on the face?

A.—An improper diet and faulty elimination. Correct these conditions and you will notice general improvement. For further particulars send a self-addressed, stamped envelope and repeat your question. 2—You may be naturally slender. Build up the health in general and you may also gain in weight. For further particulars send a self-addressed, stamped envelope and repeat your question. 3—Same treatment as in question No. 1.

Mrs. M. J. S. Q.—What can be done for a torn tear-duct, and is it wise to read or sew if one has this trouble?

A.—Consult a doctor who will advise treatment. This trouble is not related to sight and the use of the eyes is perfectly safe.

M. B. Q.—What is the cause of a coated tongue and also a bitter taste in the mouth upon arising in the morning? What do you advise? 2.—What causes a cracking sound in the left ear? 3.—What form of exercise would you advise for developing the hips. 4.—What causes sties? 5—What should a woman weigh who is 36 years old and 5 ft. 3 in. tall? 6—What will remove dandruff?

A.—This condition is probably due to some intestinal disturbance. Make sure the kidneys and bowels eliminate properly. For other particulars send a self-addressed, stamped envelope and repeat your question. 2—This may be due to wax or nasal catarrh, which require special attention. For full particulars send a self-addressed, stamped envelope and repeat your question. 3—I would suggest you join a gymnasium. 4—You may need glasses, or the intestinal tract may be at fault. For full particulars send a self-addressed, stamped envelope and repeat your question. 5—For her age and height she should weigh about 131 pounds. 6—Shampoo the heir frequently and use a good tonic. For other information send a self-addressed stamped envelope and repeat your question.

Mr. C. M. Q.—What is the cause of white patches forming on the arms and hands?

A.—This condition is due to the lack of pigment. For further particulars send a self-addressed, stamped envelope and repeat your question.

Polarine and Motoring Pleasure

A smooth running engine is the first essential to motor enjoyment.

What's the fun of motoring, if the car does not run quietly, or if it fails to glide over the enticing highways smoothly and without effort? The landscape loses its charm and the fresh air is not so fresh.

The constant use of Polarine is the one sure way to keep an engine running smoothly. Proper lubrication is the secret of smooth performance. Polarine, The Perfect Motor Oil, keeps an engine in perfect condition.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is proud to recommend Polarine as one of its major products, for Polarine represents the highest excellence in lubricants that science, money and skill can achieve.

Have the crankcase drained out today, cleaned with Polarine Flushing Oil, and refilled with the particular grade of Polarine made expressly for your car.

You'll notice the difference the minute you take the wheel. The car seems to purr with pleasure as it glides over the road with velvety smoothness. Because the engine is perfectly lubricated, every part moves with faultless precision. Listen to its soft, steady rhythm!

A smooth running car is the first essential to real motoring pleasure. Using Polarine always means few repair bills and long life to your car!

Good Hope

Weather fine, which is very welcome. There is lots of work that we need to do before the snow flies and much of it cannot be done in the rain.

Henry Behm threshed clover for Joe Holker and Henry Morehouse last week, and if all goes well W. D. Jones will finish threshing clover for Leman Morehouse tomorrow afternoon.

John Morehouse and Ted Baldwin sowed wheat last week and there are others who are planning to sow this week.

Ira Ringold and Grant Brown from Hopkins are getting along fine with the building of Geo. Curry's barn; W. D. Jones has the cement foundation made for a double corn crib with a driveway between.

John Morehouse and Henry Holker were hauling sand today to do some cement work for John.

Guy Blanchard has his new hog house about finished and Wm. Anderson's new brooder house is looming up nicely from the road.

Still we hear of people digging potatoes. Some of them are fine, while in patches there are lots of them rotted.

Oliver Wilson cut a piece of wild hay last week on Charlie Taylor's farm, the only field that we know in the community to be virgin soil.

Wm. Anderson began cribbing corn this morning. Francis Young is working for the Anderson's.

The box supper at the Highland school last Friday night was well attended and the boxes sold well. A literary program preceded the sale of the boxes and it was fine. Miss Frances Miller, from southeast of Hopkins, is the teacher.

The delegates appointed from the Highland Farmer's Union local to attend the county convention in Maryville next Saturday are Edgar Miller, Leman Morehouse, Rufus Ringold, Walter Rickman and G. B. Ulmer. John Morehouse, president and Clarence Duffield, secretary-treasurer, are also supposed to attend. There are about forty members in good standing in this local and still there is room for more. The next meeting will be Nov. 4. You are invited to come and make application for membership.

Dale Sowers shipped hogs last week through the Union and yesterday he trucked another load to St. Joseph.

Mrs. Charlie Taylor spent last week in Pickering visiting her mother, Mrs. Hinton, and her aunt, Mrs. Abe Lutz came home with her for a visit.

Mrs. Lou Sturgeon, Hopkins, visited her nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Ulmer, last week.

Misses Bessie Maud Murray, Maryville and Irene Pence, Clearmont spent the week-end with Miss Gladys Hornbuckle.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Livingston and two children visited Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Miller last Sunday.

W. D. Jones and Mrs. John Morehouse are expecting their father, D. P. Jones, and their brother, John Jones to arrive Wednesday morning for a visit. The Jones' live in California but have been visiting relatives in Omaha for nearly two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Clymens, Tarkio, visited home folks, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Clymens, last Sunday, leaving Monday morning for their home.

There will be Sunday school at Good Hope next Sunday at 10 o'clock with everyone invited. The first Sunday in November the Sunday school hour will be 2 p. m. and preaching at 3 p. m. Please notice the change in the hour of service. The Reverend Mr. Doughty, Pickering, will preach at 3 o'clock the first Sunday.

The bandits' war isn't so one-sided as is commonly thought. In Detroit, for example, the fatality list stands, six policeman to thirty-one bandits.

Closing Grain Review.

Chicago, Oct. 27.—Prospects of an early settlement of the British coal strike caused a sharp slump in Liverpool wheat prices that caused heavy selling on the Chicago Board of Trade shortly before noon today. The market had displayed strong resistance to selling before that but easterns and locals who had been on the buying side soon let go their lines. Cash prices closed steady to ½ lower while futures were 1-8 to ¼ higher, having lost virtually all early gains.

Corn got off to a good start with wheat early in the day, and failed to sink with the major grains. Therefore, futures closed ½ to 1 higher, while spot values were unchanged.

Oats eased with wheat. Cash prices were steady to ½ higher. Futures closed unchanged to 1-8 ower.

Provisions closed slightly higher, but no real change is expected before November 1, opening of the packing year.

ELECTRO-GRID AGAIN FRIDAY

MARYVILLE-KIRKSVILLE GAME TO BE RECEIVED HERE.

BEGINS AT 4 O'CLOCK

Event at Missouri Theatre Not to Conflict With H. S. Game Which Is Two Hours Earlier.

The Electro-grid owned by the State Teachers College will again furnish Maryville football fans with an away-from-home College game this week. On Friday afternoon the electric scoreboard will play the Maryville-Kirksville game for fans at the Missouri Theatre. There will be no admission charge.

The playing of the game here will not start until 4 o'clock, it was announced today by William L. Mapel, director of information at the College and designer of the electro-grid.

"Although the game in Kirksville will start at either 3 or 3:30 o'clock, we shall not start the playing of it here until 4 o'clock, for two reasons," he announced. "In the first place, the Maryville High School has a game with Trenton High on the College gridiron Friday afternoon, and we do not wish for either game to detract from the other. The high school game will start at 2 o'clock, and we shall hold ours off until 4 o'clock. That will enable all who wish to see both games.

"The High School authorities have conformed their schedule to that of the College, and we do not believe it fair to run the Electro-grid while the High School team is playing here.

"In the second place, the game played on the electric board last week showed that the board is capable of playing the game much more rapidly than the players can run through the plays and formations. By starting our game in Maryville as much as an hour behind time, we can even then finish as soon as or ahead of the game at Kirksville. It will be remembered that the players have numerous time-outs, and that there are fifteen minutes between halves at Kirksville. We shall have to have no delay, and the game will therefore be more interesting than if we were forced to wait every few moments."

The play-by-play account of the game will be received at the theatre by means of a leased wire direct from the field in Kirksville. A Maryville man will assist the operator at the Kirksville end of the line, and C. W. Payne, local Western Union manager, will be on the receiving end at the theatre.

When the electro-grid was first used last Friday in the game against the Springfield Teachers, it attracted much attention. It should be much better this week, because there will be no delays.

Today's Kirksville Express says:

"Dope" on the strength of the two teams as they will be pitted against each other this week is rather hard to get. That both teams have met and defeated the Cape Girardeau Indians, gives the only chance for comparison and this gives Kirksville the upper hand as the Bulldogs won a shut-out game of 23-0 last week, and Maryville won by a 14 to 10 score.

Maryville opened her season by defeating Missouri Wesleyan 13 to 0. She won two conference games this season, one from Cape Girardeau, 14-10, and one from Springfield, 3-0. She also won from the Kirksville Osteopaths, by a score of 13 to 0.

Kirksville, too, has chalked up only victories, opening the season by defeating Kemper Military Academy 33-0, following with a victory over the Westminster Blue Jay by a 13 to 0 score, outplaying Culver-Stockton in the first home game, tallying a score of 31 to 7, and last week taking her first conference game by a 23 to 0 score from Cape Girardeau.

Kirksville and Maryville are old foes, having met on the gridiron in nine previous years. While early scores show the Bulldogs far in the lead, the last few years the Bearcats have made the Bulldogs look to their laurels and have a few victories on their side of the book. The records for previous years are as fallows:

1908—	Kirksville 63;	Maryville	0
1916—	Kirksville 92;	Maryville	0
1917—	Kirksville 37;	Maryville	0
1919—	Kirksville 87;	Maryville	0
1921—	Kirksville 13;	Maryville	0
1922—	Kirksville 18;	Maryville	0
1923—	Kirksville 6;	Maryville	19
1924—	Kirksville 14;	Maryville	0
1925—	Kirksville 3;	Maryville	12

SPOOFHOUNDS WORKING HARD

GRIM PREPARATIONS ARE MADE FOR TRENTON GAME.

TEAM IN GOOD SHAPE

Two Regulars, Out of Last Game, Available Now—High School Students Exude Pep.

Intensive drill in spiking and tackling, with a good deal of punting and forward passing thrown in, is the order of the day at Maryville High School, where a group of determined gridiron warriors are making grim preparations for the visit of an eleven from Trenton High School on Friday afternoon. The game will start at 2 o'clock.

The spirit animating the football squad also has pervaded the high school student body, and "pep" meetings are held regularly every day and spontaneously wherever two or more students congregate. For Trenton, they would have the world know, is Maryville's chosen and bitter, albeit friendly, enemy.

That the Spoofhounds have a considerable task carved out for them is indicated by the Trenton record, which includes a victory by a large margin last week over Princeton and a 7-0 win from Maysville the preceding week.

The Trenton eleven, known as the "Bulldogs," is coached by Carl Roda, a former Kansas Aggie star and for some time coach at Savannah.

The Spoofhounds promise to be in much better shape for battle this week than they were for last week's mud-plowing with Lafayette at St. Joseph. Bush, a backfield mainstay who was ill last week, will be available for duty again, and Swinford, who suffered a cracked rib several days ago, is ready to return to his post at quarterback.

Besides these two, Coaches Croy and Graham can pick from Kissinger, Wilson, Keever and Stanfield to complete their backfield. Stanfield showed well at fullback when he was sent in as a substitute in the St. Joseph game. One backfield man was lost when Dick Holt found it necessary to give up practice.

The line is likely to remain much the same as in earlier games, although there is spirited competition for the guard positions. Here Captain Curtis New and Ben Thompson are being "pushed" by Frank Nichols and others. Willilam Alsup is still hard after the center position at present occupied by Smith. Howard and Hall at the tackle berths, as well as James Alsup and Mumma on the flankes, have to keep going at top speed to prevent someone from the second team crowding them out.

Grades are up, and the coaches have no worry on that score.

"It's going to be a battle," said Croy.

Springfield Team to Undergo a Shake-Up

Substitutes Will Get Their Chance In Game Against Warrensburg.—Bear's Chance Now Slim.

Springfield, Mo., Oct. 27.—Several new faces will be seen in the lineup of the Southwest Missouri State Teachers college Bears when they oppose the Warrensburg Teachers College Mules Friday on the local field in an important M. I. A. A. conference game.

Coach Arthur W. Briggs is planning a complete shake-up of the varsity squad and several substitutes who have been playing brilliantly in practice and decorating the bench during games are due to get their big chance in the Warrensburg game.

Had the Bears played airtight football through the entire game last Friday with Maryville, they would have at least earned a tie with the Bearcats. As it was, Maryville won, 3 to 0.

Springfield still has a slim chance at the conference title, but it looks that the best that the Bears can hope for is a possible tie. To tie for the title, Springfield would have to down Warrensburg and Kirksville in its remaining conference games and one of the latter two teams would have to beat Maryville.

The Bears and Mules have met only three times previously on the gridiron, with Warrensburg winning all three tilts and scoring 29 points to the local team's none.

The first game between the two schools was in 1910, Warrensburg winning, 15 to 0. The second game in 1924 resulted in a 7-0 victory for the Mules and the third game last year was won by the same score by the Central State Teachers.

Visitor from Washington

W. B. Trullinger of Walla Walla, Wash., is visiting his brothers, J. B., Joel and Henry Trullinger, and other relatives. After spending a week or ten days here, Mr. Trullinger will go to Los Angeles, Cal., to spend the winter.

How Far Is It To Stanberry?

Maryville has its own problems to solve without worrying about those of others. The old question, "how old is Ann?" has given way to a more recent and far more vital one—"How many miles to Stanberry?"

Even authorities differ on the subject.

The imposing sign on the corner at the First National Bank says: "Stanberry 29 miles."

Then it is settled, it is twenty-nine miles to Stanberry?

But no! Directly across the street there is yet another sign which reads:

"Stanberry 30 miles."

What is a poor soul to do. Is it a mile across the street?

Aimee Very Nervous at Douglass Hospital

Nurse Declares Evangelist's Wrists were Bruised And There Were Blisters On Her Feet.

Los Angeles, Oct. 27.—The condition of Aimee Semple McPherson when she reappeared suddenly in the Sonora desert near Douglass, Ariz., five weeks after she disappeared from the beach at Ocean Park, was described in detail today by Miss Margaret Attaway, night nurse at the Calumet hospital at Douglass, testified at the evangelist's hearing on charges of perjury and conspiracy.

Miss Attaway declared that Mrs. McPherson was on the verge of nervous prostration when brought to the hospital. The nurse said the evangelist's wrists were bruised and that she had blisters on her feet.

"Mrs. McPherson came to us about 4 o'clock in the morning of June 23," the witness testified. "I saw red marks on her wrists, apparently made by a rope. There were blisters on her feet. When she relaxed, the muscles controlled by her nerves twitched incessantly."

Special Will Teach Soil Improvement

Train Sent by College of Agriculture Will Also Offer Dairy Exhibits.

A full car load of exhibit material demonstrating how to grow legumes, establish crop rotations, correct soil acidity, apply fertilizers and control soil erosion will be supplied by the Missouri College of Agriculture for the Wabash Farm and Home Special. This train is to be run over the Wabash lines in North Missouri November 1 to 6 arriving in Maryville, November 3 at 10.10 o'clock for a two-hour stay.

The special will include also a car of dairy exhibits and a car of home convenience demonstration material supplied by the college.

The general topic of the exhibits in the soils car will be the "Missouri Plan of Soil Improvement." This will include: first, growing legumes and all kinds of legumes that should be grown in the parts of the states traversed by the special train; second, treatment of the soil in growing legumes; and third, soil erosion and its control.

The speakers representing the College of Agriculture in the discussion of these subjects will be M. F. Miller, chairman of the soil department, and P. F. Schowengerdt, extension specialist in soils.

Prof. B. A. Dunn Is Hit by Automobile

Former Maryville Editor Is In Hospital At Stevens Point, Wis., And Condition Is Serious.

Prof. B. A. Dunn, a former well known resident and editor of Maryville, is in a hospital at Stevens Point, Wis., suffering from injuries received when run down by an automobile as he was crossing the street. His left arm was broken. Mr. Dunn is 84 years old and because of his advanced years his condition is considered serious. Mr. Dunn has been spending the summer and fall at Stevens Point with his daughter, Mrs. Hugh Hoffman, formerly Miss Dorothy Dunn.

L. L. St. Clair Gives Address at Highland

Eighty persons attended the first community meeting at the Highland school, northeast of Maryville, Friday night. L. L. St. Clair of the Maryville High School gave an interesting talk on Amendment No. 4. The program consisted of two short plays by the pupils, "The Opening Day of School" and "The Lost Tickets;" readings by Maxine Barton, Mabel Callahan, Edna Marie Hall, Lola Callahan, Hugh Hires, and Marie Belcher; and the school paper read by Helen Richey. A. R. Robinson led the community singing accompanied by Miss Ruth Matter on the organ. The lunch, prepared by the Highland Club, included fried chicken, bread and butter sandwiches, salad, pickles, pumpkin pie and coffee.

OUR COLLEGE

What The Students Out On The Hill Are Doing

The College dramatics club is one of the largest extra-curriculum organizations in the institution. It now numbers more than 200 students, and Miss Blanche Dow and Miss Violet Eastman, faculty directors, have been forced to make a radical change in the club.

At the meeting last night, it was determined to divide the club into two sections: one for those who have had experience in dramatics and public speaking, and the other for those who are inexperienced in the forensic and histrionic arts.

The advanced section of the club will meet on the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month, and two one-act plays will be given at the meetings. The second section will meet on the first and third Tuesdays of each month, at which time the first part of the meeting period will be devoted to study and the second part to the presentation of acts or scenes from plays. Then these presentations will be criticized by the division.

The Dramatics Club will sponsor two, and maybe three, major productions this year. It is possible that the play, "Rolla's Wild Oats" will be given in late November, and then there will be the play for the benefit of the Tower, College yearbook, in March, and the annual senior play in commencement week.

The College student council has made a ruling on the wearing of "letters" from other schools. In the future, students will not be allowed to wear high school athletic emblems unless it be the regular state "M" given for physical proficiency.

Letters given by other schools of equal rank with the College may be worn by students only until the students have had an opportunity to earn or has earned a letter from the College.

The student council will investigate and advise punishment for all persons not living up to this ruling.

The Women's Athletic Association at the College is starting the year's activities now. Twenty new members were taken into the organization this week, and a definite program of activity is being planned for the remainder of the school year. Miss Margaret McMurry of Maryville is president of the organization, which is composed of all women interested in physical education.

The annual Hallowe'en party of the College will be held at 8 o'clock Friday night in the College library. This event, which is sponsored by the College Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A., is a costume affair, and an appeal has been made to all students and faculty members to attend in costume and mask.

The College assembly this morning was devoted mainly to politics, of a non-partisan nature. Henry A. Foster, president of the faculty council, presided in the absence of Uel W. Lamkin, president of the school. Mr. Foster urged students to vote in the general election on next Tuesday, and explained certain matters concerning the absentee ballot.

Cards for absentee voters were passed out to the students this morning. They were to be filled out by all eligible to vote, and if the students desired, the tickets from their counties were to be sent them, according to the cards.

State Senator M. E. Ford and L. E. Ziegler, superintendent of the Maryville schools, spoke to the student body in a special meeting following the assembly. This was strictly a student meeting, the faculty adjourning.

Senator Ford spoke on the election next Tuesday, emphasizing matters concerning the constitutional amendments. Mr. Ziegler spoke against Proposition No. 4, saying that to vote for it would be tantamount to voting against the federal government and its dry laws.

The faculty of the College, which make up a special teachers' association group, today elected delegates to the annual State Teachers Association meeting in Kansas City next month. Miss Blanche H. Dow will be a delegate for this year, and T. H. Cook was elected for two years.

Motor Car Strikes Virginia Brummett

Child Is Hit While Returning From School; Injuries Are Not Considered Serious.

Virginia Brummett, 7 years old, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Banner Brummett, 216 East First street, received several face bruises when she was struck by a motor car driven by Forrest Howland at the corner of Main and Thompson streets at noon today. Her condition is not serious.

The child was taken to the home of Frank McKee, 310 South Main street, where a physician called by Howland attended her. She probably will be able to attend school tomorrow, Mrs. Brummett said this afternoon.

Virginia was crossing the street with several mates. They went out to the street from behind a parked car. Howland saw them and stopped. The children also stopped. Howland started his car as the children again started to cross the street.

"I guess the accident was no one's fault," Mrs. Brummett said this afternoon.

William Corken and Lawrence Schaber of Conception Junction were business visitors in Maryville today.

Over 3,000 cities and towns have streets paved with portland cement concrete

Horse-and-Buggy Pavements Won't Do

Property owners in many towns and cities whose streets swarm with motor traffic are still wasting their money on horse-and-buggy "pavements" of bygone days.

These rough, bumpy streets are directly responsible for broken springs, cut tires, greater depreciation of cars, physical discomfort, loss of time, and many accidents involving loss of life or limb.

And the heavy expense of trying to keep worn-out, dangerous, horse-and-buggy streets in repair, added to their original cost, amounts to more than enough to pay for true, even, non-skid concrete pavement that has the maintenance built in.

So in the long run you are paying for concrete streets. Why not get them?

All of the facts are in our free booklet on "Concrete Streets." Ask for your copy
